AG 3080 - Culture and Agriculture of Italy - outreach / international education course of OSU.

Instructor: Dr. Leon Spicer (Oklahoma State University)
16 days (May 2016).

Estimated cost: $3,150 (includes lodging, in-country transportation, all breakfasts, several dinners, and program fees). Airfare & tuition not included.

Highlights and Benefits of the course:

- 16 days of international travel in Italy (Turin, Milan, Venice, Bologna, Padova, Florence, Rome) learning about culture (e.g., art, history) and agriculture (e.g., food production-wine, olive oil, cheese) of Italy.
- Completely guided by OSU Faculty and obtain 3 hours of “I” credit.
- Opportunity to learn some basic Italian and have an enriching cultural experience.
- Initiate or expand your international network, including meeting faculty at two veterinary schools in Italy that will be visited.
- It’s great fun too – ask last year’s participants!

For questions or more details, call Dr. Leon Spicer at 405-744-9268
(email: leon.spicer@okstate.edu)